Organic Oil	Botanical Name	Benefit	Description	UPC
Argan	Argania spinosa	Rejuvenating	Argan is extracted from the nuts of a native desert tree in Morocco and it is valued for the protection it offers from the dry desert atmosphere of North Africa. Argan oil contains high levels of skin rejuvenating essential fatty acids and is great for moisturizing and nourishing the skin.	0-51381-99810-3
Baobab	Adansonia digitata	Moisturizing	Baobab is extracted from the nuts of an indigenous African tree and is regarded throughout the continent as nutritious food for the skin. Baobab oil is good for a luxurious massage or for intense moisturizing of dry skin. Baobab will leave your skin glowing and shielded from the elements.	0-51381-99813-4
Macadamia	Macadamia ternifolia	Protecting	Macadamia nut is cultivated in Kenya where the oil's rich texture and glossy, nourishing coverage has been appreciated for years. A wonderful oil for creating a long-lasting sheen of superior skin shielding emollients, macadamia oil is a great choice for protecting skin.	0-51381-99805-9
Rosehip	Rosa canina	Restoring	Rosehip is extracted from the seeds of rose fruits, known as hips, in South America and is valued as a potent skin-rejuvenator. Rosehip oil contains pure retinol (Vitamin A) which is best known for replenishing and restoring mature or sun-damaged skin.	0-51381-99811-0
Tamanu	Calophyllum inophyllum	Nourishing	The emerald green color and soft feel of tamanu oil comes from the fruit of trees growing throughout the South Pacific and employed as a purifying and protecting body oil. Tamanu oil contains a dense array of powerful antioxidant essential fatty acids and is indispensable for promoting the vibrancy of the skin.	0-51381-99812-7
